Greetings from the principal's office and welcome to our website! Maya Angelou Elementary School is truly an exceptional school because students, staff, parents and community work together to make great things happen. This unique teamwork creates a positive environment of respect and support as we strive towards providing the best possible education for students.

There is no greater resource for our families and this country than our children. Educating today's students for tomorrow's world is our top priority. We are living in an ever changing "information age" where new scientific discoveries, technologies, and economic partnerships will impact our students and the world in which they will live as adults. At Maya Angelou Elementary School, we will teach our students to solve problems, communicate effectively, work cooperatively with others, be technologically literate and embrace lifelong learning.

We believe all students can achieve at high levels in a well rounded, rich educational environment. Join us this year in our quest to 'Write a Story of Excellence' for our students! It's going to be a great year!
